

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The State of South Dakota is located in an area of the United States significantly affected by devastating storms, such as tornados, severe thunderstorms, lightening and flash floods; and,

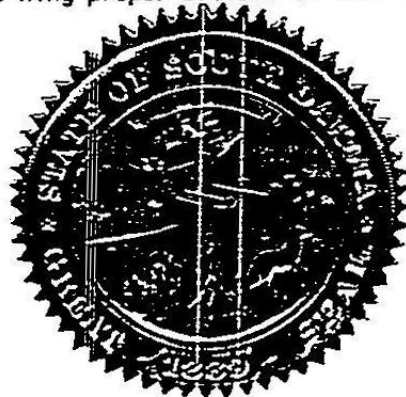

WHEREAS, It is recognized that where appropriate actions are taken to educate and inform residents of the state, fewer persons are injured or killed because of such storms; and,

WHEREAS, The National Weather Service of the U.S. Department of Commerce and the Division of Emergency and Disaster Service have joined together in sponsoring Severe Weather Awareness Week:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 2 through 8, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I urge the cooperation of the above mentioned agencies, together with the news media, in a concerted effort to inform our citizens concerning proper actions to take when severe weather conditions prevail.

SEVERE WEATHER AWARENESS WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine
